

TRAILS
MAZATZAL WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 240 miles of “system” trails serving the Mazatzal Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

Saddle Ridge Trail 14: 8 miles in length. Passes through a large pinyon-juniper forest. Crosses the East Verde River near LF Ranch. Elevation: 3,240 - 5,800 feet. Termini: Forest Road 154, and Forest Road 406 (two miles west of Doll Baby TH).

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
