

CHAPTER 5

LIST OF INTERDISCIPLINARY TEAM MEMBERS

The following individuals participated in the formulation and analysis of the proposed action and alternatives, and the subsequent preparation of the Environmental Impact Statement for the Fox and Crescent Reservoirs Maintenance Project.

Clark Tucker – Project Leader

District Ranger, Roosevelt/Duchesne Ranger Districts, Ashley National Forest
Bachelor of Science (BS) Forest Management, Utah State University, 1968
4 years timber inventory
6 years range management specialist
17 years District Ranger
7 years Ecosystem Group Leader
15 years experience managing wilderness as both line and staff officers

Mike Bergfeld – Recreation

Recreation Forester, Vernal Ranger District
BS – Forestry, University of Illinois 1971
Forest Recreation Manager – 26 Years
Fire/Recreation Technician – 7 Years

Bob Christensen – Wildlife

Wildlife Biologist, Roosevelt/Duchesne Ranger Districts
BS Fisheries and Wildlife Management, Utah State University 1996
Minors – Range Science, Biology, and Recreation Resources
USDA Forest Service, Wildlife and Range – 5 years
Utah Division of Wildlife Resources, Technician – 2 years

David Frew – Wilderness

Wilderness Specialist (acting), Roosevelt/Duchesne Ranger Districts
BS (Business Administration), University of Maryland
MA (Public Administration), University of Northern Colorado
MS-pending (Forestry Sciences), Colorado State University
Wilderness/Trails/Dispersed Recreation – 8 years

Dan Abeyta - Fisheries

Forest Fisheries Biologist – Ashley National Forest
B.S. Fisheries and Wildlife Management, Utah State University 1994
Fisheries Biologist, National Biological Service 1994-1996 – Washington
Fisheries Biologist, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service 1996-2001 – Utah and Montana
Fisheries Biologist, U.S. Forest Service 2001-present - Ashley National Forest
Member of American Fisheries Society since 1992

Bill Hayes – Helicopter and Fire Specialist

Assistant Center Manager, Uintah Basin Interagency Fire Center
25 years of firefighting experience, 11 years of which is in aviation
Aviation Qualifications: Air Operations Branch Director, Air Support Group Supervisor, Helicopter Coordinator, Helicopter Manager, Type 1 Helibase Manager

Ronnee Sue Helzner – Hydrology

Hydrologist, Ashley National Forest
BA, Environmental Science, Colby College, Maine – 1977
BS, Range Management with Water/Fish Graduate work, University of Wyoming – 1985
Member, National Watershed/Riparian Committee, Society for Range Management
Assistant District Ranger and Watershed Program Manager – 4 years
Fisheries Biologist – 4 years
Range Conservationist – 2 years
17 years with the USDA Forest Service and USDI Bureau of Land Management

Alan Huber – Vegetation/Range

Rangeland Management Specialist, Roosevelt-Duchesne Range District
BA, History-Political Science, Brigham Young University – 1991
MS, Botany & Range Science, Brigham Young University – 1995
President, Northern Chapter, Utah Section, Society for Range Management
Range Technician – 3 years
Range Conservationist – 3 years
6 years with the USDA Forest Service

Darlene Koerner – Soils and Landform

Forest Soil Scientist, Ashley National Forest

Byron Loosle – Cultural Resources

Heritage Program Leader, Ashley National Forest
PhD, Anthropology, University of Kansas
MA, Anthropology, Brigham Young University
BS, Anthropology, Brigham Young University
11 years with the USDA, Forest Service

Don Marchant – Forest Engineering

Forest Engineer, Ashley National Forest
BS, Engineering Science in Civil Engineering, Brigham Young University

Kurt Pindel – Wildlife

Wildlife Biologist – Roosevelt/Duchesne Ranger Districts
BS Wildlife Management
University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point
USDI National Park Service Biologist – 7 years
USDA Forest Service Biologist – 3 years
Member, The Wildlife Society

Chauncie Todd – Lands, Special Uses, Minerals

Forester, Ashley National Forest
BS, Forest/Range Management, Colorado State University, 1970
Range Conservationist – 8 years
Resource Assistant – 7 years
Lands/Minerals Forester – 16 years
32 years with the USDA Forest Service